Reairtel 5/12/67, reflected MASSARO is registered at Apartment #8, 1221 Horn Ave. (West Hollywood), Los Angeles, Co., Calif., and has had utility service at that address since 4/24/67. He listed [redacted].

Pertinent local authorities in the Dade Co., Fla. area were advised of the new residence of MASSARO on 5/15/67.

On 5/16/67, SA WILLIAM P. KELLY advised Departmental Attorney [redacted], Miami, Fla., of the new address of subject. It is noted in this connection, MASSARO re-entered the U.S. at Miami during 1/66, by aircraft from Colombia, S. A. At that time he was carrying a small caliber pistol in his luggage. He was prosecuted in Dade Co. Criminal Court, Miami, on charge of being a felon in possession of a firearm. The case was dismissed by the local court, which ruled MASSARO did not have the weapon in his possession upon entry at Miami.

U.S. Customs, Miami, noting the obvious fallacy of the opinion of the local court, requested Departmental Attorney [redacted] to consider prosecution of subject under the Federal Firearms Act, since MASSARO is a convicted felon.

On 2/20/67, [redacted] confidentially advised SA KELLY that the USA at Miami does not feel prosecution of MASSARO in this matter is a suitable vehicle for prosecution, due to the alleged petty nature of the violation. [redacted] stated he would further consider the possibility of having MASSARO indicted in USDC, Miami, in connection with the firearms violation, which [redacted] stated he feels is suitable for prosecution, since MASSARO is a dangerous thief.

For the info of Los Angeles, Miami, knows of no California thieves or hoodlums with whom MASSARO is, or has been associated, other than [redacted].

RESIDENCE AND ACTIVITIES

On 11/6/67, Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] of the apartment house located at 1221 Horn, West Hollywood, California, advised that MASSARO [redacted] moved from Apartment 8 on 10/27/67 owing three weeks rent. They left no forwarding address. [redacted] stated a large green moving van bearing the name "Emerald Movers" to the best of his recollection moved MASSARO's furniture. He stated in previous conversation with MASSARO, the latter indicated he was working as a bartender at a night club in San Fernando Valley which had the word "Mushroom" in its name. pa

[redacted] stated MASSARO was gone for approximately two weeks and upon his return about 10/14 or 10/21/67 he and [redacted] had a violent argument, during which time he accused her of being unfaithful and was evidently beating her from the screams emanating from the apartment. She stated while they resided at this apartment, MASSARO left each day at about 10:00 a.m. with a surf board on his car and returned at approximately 4:30 p.m., when he dressed and left supposedly for his bartending job. The only individuals known to visit MASSARO were [redacted] known associates of MASSARO.

Shortly before departing from this residence, the MASSAROs claimed to have been burglarized about 10/25/67 and stated they had lost $300 which was under a mattress, as well as two fur coats, one belonging to [redacted].

Efforts to locate a moving company bearing the name "Emerald" have been negative to date. REC 36 87-21433-11

PISCITELLE and MASSARO upon forcing way in announced that they were police officers, had guns drawn and demanded "Where's the stuff." Apartment occupants said that they did not know what subjects were talking about and subjects, thereafter, made them lie down on the floor and began pistol whipping them. Subjects then took victims into bedroom and the unsub then left the apartment. After more questioning regarding "the stuff," PISCITELLE and MASSARO said that they were going to take victims "to the station." As victims were taken back into the living room, PISCITELLE turned to [ ] and said "you would like to shoot me don't you?" At this time, [ ] pulled a Browning automatic and began shooting and PISCITELLE and MASSARO also began shooting. PISCITELLE was killed and MASSARO seriously wounded, being hit three times. On this occasion, Capt. [ ] advised that all the information they had been able to gather to date, it would appear that this was a "shylocking" bet which PERRY, et al, were attempting to collect.

On 5/10/68 the San Diego Office furnished information to the effect that an informant had advised that PERRY had allegedly been shaken down for $1,500; that PERRY claimed he had found the individuals who had done this to him and that he was going out to "rough them up".

On 5/10/68 this information was furnished to Sgt. [ ] Intelligence Div., LAPD, who is one member of a team of Intelligence Officers who have been assigned to this case. Sgt. [ ] advised that [ ] had surrendered himself that morning through his attorney, [ ].

Sgt. [ ] advised that PERRY'S [ ] [ ] Aka [ ] had refused to talk to any of the investigating officers on the advice of her attorney, [ ] is representing [ ] in her recent [ ] arrests by the LAPD.

at a telephone answering service, she had learned that one [redacted] (phonetic) had been receiving messages with reference to the fatal shooting of GEORGE PERRY. She recalled that one such message left for [redacted] was to the effect: "GEORGE is dead -- what I thought was going to happen did happen -- the men in blue are there -- you better vanish".

On 5/13/68 the foregoing information was furnished to Sgt. [redacted] who stated that when he and his partner, Sgt. [redacted] interviewed [redacted] on 5/10/68, that [redacted] claimed [redacted] was a reference of his, that when [redacted] was interviewed he claimed he was only a casual acquaintance of [redacted] and knew nothing about GEORGE PERRY.

Sgt. [redacted] advised that it had now been determined that this was not a shylocking "strong-armed collection" attempt. It has been learned that $11,000 was paid out for cocaine which [redacted] was to have obtained, cut properly and had it ready for delivery. Further, that witnesses had been located which can identify the car being driven by [redacted] which was observed "cruising the area" of [redacted] apartment building for almost an hour prior to the shooting.

When [redacted] was confronted with the fact that investigating officers desired to observe his car, [redacted] claimed that it was in the possession of his attorney, [redacted]. For the most part, [redacted] was not cooperative in his interview, appeared to be extremely nervous and several times, during the course of his interview, broke out in tears and cried.

Sgt. [redacted] stated that with this turn in event, the Detectives are now planning on arresting all the individuals involved, charging mainly the murder violation under the California Penal Codes, 187.

Sgt. [redacted] also advised that over this past weekend, PERRY'S [redacted] had been confiding in some of her friends that all of this shooting was over narcotics.

The Bureau and all offices receiving copies of this communication are requested to furnish any information coming to their attention to this office so that it can be furnished to the LAPD as a matter of police cooperation in this case. Re Los Angeles letter to the Bureau dated 6/20/69.

On 7/8/69, Los Angeles Police Department officers received a report of a major fire at the intersection of 26th and Western. Officers determined that the actual address of the fire was 2645 South Western. The responding officers found an associate of MASSARO, NORMAN KOZAN, lying at the side of the building, apparently badly burned. This same individual had been previously observed by other officers peering in the window of the restaurant about four hours prior to the fire. Investigation revealed that entry to the building had been forced through a rear door, and the fire apparently had been set deliberately by the use of gasoline. KOZAN's clothing appeared to have a strong odor of gasoline.

KOZAN was transported to a hospital and was subsequently visited by [redacted] in the company of subject MASSARO. Officers questioned MASSARO, who denied that he was there with [redacted] or to visit NORMAN KOZAN. After further questioning, MASSARO admitted that he was waiting for [redacted]. Thereafter, the officers arrested MASSARO on suspicion of arson in view of MASSARO's conflicting statements and the fact that he was with NORMAN KOZAN on the evening of 7/7/69.

KOZAN received second and third degree burns and is under hospital treatment. The status of the possible prosecution of MASSARO and KOZAN by local authorities is in a pending status at the present time. This matter will be followed for further action and the Bureau advised.

ACTIVITIES

The retrial of MASSARO in local court, who is accused of conspiracy to rob and commit assault, re-opened 12/8/70, at Los Angeles. This is the second Superior Court trial for MASSARO, whose first trial ended in a hung jury on 7/31/70. The charges against MASSARO arose out of an argument, according to police, over a "narcotic doublecross involving $11,000," on 5/8/68, in which GEORGE BART PISCITELLE was killed.

Federal prosecution by the Strike Force under the ATF jurisdiction is contemplated on MASSARO.

In connection with Bureau File 87-107875, captioned "JOEL JAY ROSTAU (DECEASED), ITSP - MT; FPC," investigation in Switzerland, initiated by New York, determined that ROSTAU and subject MASSARO had traveled to Geneva, and in December 1969, obtained three safe deposit boxes in the name of a Los Angeles individual, [REDACTED] then gave [REDACTED] the three safe deposit boxes to MASSARO and ROSTAU on 12/12/69. [REDACTED] reflected that [REDACTED] was acquainted with [REDACTED] ROSTAU and MASSARO when they were in Geneva, Switzerland. On one occasion, ROSTAU told [REDACTED] that he knew that [REDACTED] had told [REDACTED] about the stolen securities. [REDACTED] had been told by [REDACTED] that ROSTAU and MASSARO had $2,000,000 worth of stolen securities and they wanted her to [REDACTED] into buying the securities. Agent [REDACTED] of AFT advised that New York City authorities as well as the LAPD and himself believed that ROSTAU was killed by MASSARO, however, no proof had been obtained to support this belief. They felt that this may very well have been over either a question of stolen securities or of narcotics, both items which had held MASSARO's interest in the past.

MASSARO, on 2/10/71, reported to the LAPD that his apartment at 1569 Viewside Drive had been burglarized of clothing, jewelry, and miscellaneous items such as a television, a stainless steel juicer, and a bedspread, valued at $11,699. (LAPD, Report DR Number 71438459, investigation developed that entry to the apartment may have been made by prying open a door and the premises appeared to have been ransacked). MASSARO stated that when he left his residence, all the doors and windows of the residence were secured, and upon returning to the residence, he found the open door and the ransacked premises. Unknown subject, using a can of shaving cream, wrote a four letter word, "____ you," in six inch letters on the bedroom mirror. The stolen items ranged in value from $90.00 for a metal decoration to $1,750 for seven men's suits, size 40. In view of MASSARO's reputation, suspected illegal activities, and many enemies in the underworld, investigation in the burglary he reported is not being conducted by the Los Angeles Office. The nominal value of the merchandise and lack of descriptive data would appear to preclude the possibility of an Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property (ITSP) violation, and the veracity of the victim is certainly questionable.

An information copy of this communication is being disseminated to New York in connection with their investigation relating to ROSTAU and the securities located at Geneva, Switzerland.

Re Los Angeles letter to Bureau dated 9/20/71.

Contact with local authorities reflect that the subject is still considered a suspect in the murder of JOEL JAY ROSTAU at New York City in 1970. No proof of the subject's involvement has been obtained by investigating New York authorities. The New York Office has been correlating investigation in New York File 87-57613 relating to the travel of MASSARO and ROSTAU with stolen securities to Switzerland in December 1969. New York has not provided Los Angeles with the outcome of this case to date, which appeared to hinge on the availability of the stolen securities from the Swiss authorities.

[redacted] a possible witness in connection with the New York case, has returned to his residence in Los Angeles. [redacted] contacted the Los Angeles Office and stated that he had not been in touch in recent months with MASSARO.
